NESA: North East Students' Association

About NESA

The Northeast Students' Association (NESA) of IHE was established on March 1, 2024, with the intention of launching a welfare program for students from the North eastern region of India. It seeks to provide a welcoming, comfortable, and safe space where North East students may connect with one another, and feel at home while they are away from home. NESA at IHE honours the various cultures that make up the northeastern region. NESA seek to address problems and concerns of North East students if any. The goal of NESA is to promote the welfare and interest of the North East students with integration of the students belonging to other parts of Indian and to help North East students to acclimatize to their new environment.

The objectives of NESA are as follows:

- To raise awareness and improve understanding of diverse but lesser-known cultures and traditions of the Northeastern states regarding their rich cultural legacy, unique ethnic variety, rich biological diversity, plenty of resources, and historical past.
- To provide a forum for students to express, display, and present their talent.
- To promote the spirit of inclusivity and reflect Unity in Diversity, step towards National Integration

Protocol to be followed for functioning of the committee.

NESA at Institute of Home Economics gives equal representation and opportunities to students from different parts of India. The members of the student's council can be changed each academic year and the core team members should be from the North East region only and the coordinators can be from different parts of India. In order to make NESA more inclusive any student of the college who is eager to learn and experience more about NE India may become part or member of NESA family. It is an important step towards national integration, since NESA believes in Unity in Diversity.

Future Plan

- Screening of regional films that defines unique biodiversity of region
- Webinars, workshops and discussions on contemporary developments in North-East India
- Celebrating North East Day
- Organizing Food and cultural Festival of North East India
