

Cultural, Literary and Debating Committee (2023-24)

The Institute of Home Economics, University of Delhi, has vibrant student societies. The Cultural Committee of the Institute of Home Economics, University of Delhi, in collaboration with the Students' Union, plays a pivotal role in organizing a wide array of events and competitions throughout the academic year, resonating with the vibrant spirit of the college's student societies. The institute's active participation in organizing inter-college and intra-college events showcases its commitment to providing students with opportunities for holistic growth and development. The institute celebrates various national and international days enthusiastically, fostering a sense of community and cultural diversity among its students. Additionally, it hosts competitions on days of national importance like the 15th August (Indian Independence Day) and the 26th January (Indian Republic Day) to commemorate these important occasions. These celebrations serve as platforms for students to express their patriotism and pride in their national identity and heritage. Furthermore, the competitions organized on these significant dates provide students with avenues to showcase their skills and talents. Whether through essay writing, debates, cultural performances, or culinary contests, these competitions contribute to the overall academic and cultural enrichment of the college community. Achievements of different societies within the Cultural Committee are given below:
