All societies must follow these guidelines for functioning of their society.

1. Students are responsible for their behaviour at all times. They must not engage in any behaviour that amounts to a breach of discipline or disrupts the college's functioning. This includes but is not limited to missing classes, organizing activities without prior permission, disrespecting teaching or non-teaching staff, bullying, intimidation or harassment of students, maligning each other's image or the reputation of the college on social media, creating excessive noise in academic areas and violation of college rules.
2. The society, its president, or its members cannot collect any fee or monetary contribution from students for any society-related purpose in the name of the college.
3. Membership in the society must be entirely voluntary, based on students' interest and potential without any bias. No society or its office-bearers may coerce or pressure students to join or remain members.

4. Society presidents must secure approval from the Cultural Committee Convenor and the society's Faculty Representative at least one week before students participate in any external event or competition representing the college.
5. Society members must note that no attendance will be given for rehearsals for events and competitions. Attendance for participation may be given, subject to approval by the competent authority.
6. The society can not invite external speakers to address meetings or events in the college without the prior permission from the competent authority.
7. Society and its members must obtain prior written approval from the Cultural Committee Convenor, the society's Faculty Representative, Student Advisors, and the Principal before inviting any external mentor or visitor to the college premises.
8. Society presidents must obtain approval from both the Cultural Committee Convenor and the society's Faculty Representative at least one week before organizing any event, competition, or activity in college.
9. Students will be responsible for their safety and security while participating in events in other universities or colleges. They are advised to keep their parents informed.
10. For each activity participation, the society must submit the following after the event, within a week:
 - Permission letter
 - [] Poster with all necessary details
 - [] Brief write-up
 - Geo-tagged pictures
